

This event sponsored/endorsed by:

ACLU of Southern California, Robert Greenwald, Tom Hayden,, Interfaith Communities United For Justice And Peace, KPFK, Liberty Hill Foundation,
The Nation Institute, Progressive Jewish Alliance, Progressive Religious Partnership, Southern California Americans for Democratic Action, The Shefa Fund

A gathering for civil liberties & peaceful tomorrows

First Baptist Church
760 South Westmoreland
(near 8th and Vermont)
Los Angeles

RSVP:
323-852-9190
for information:
www.icujp.org

SEPTEMBER 10, 2002

► 7pm

SEPTEMBER ELEVENTH FAMILIES FOR PEACEFUL TOMORROWS

Kelly Campbell and Barry Amundson

Film footage of 9/11 victims
visiting Afghanistan

6 pm

Private reception and book launch with Celebrity Guests & Speakers.

Author Robert Greenwald
signs his new book,
IT'S A FREE COUNTRY.
to benefit ACLU
RSVP: 323-852-9190

Speaker Kelly Campbell will discuss how the events of September 11 personally affected her family, and their decision to speak out as a voice for peace. She will describe her emotional journey to Afghanistan, the stories of the Afghan sister families she met, and what can be done to help the innocent victims of US bombing in Afghanistan. She will introduce the organization she founded along with other September Eleventh families and how they are working to promote peaceful responses to the tragedies of September 11.

ALFRE WOODARD
activist/actor

ROBERT SCHEER questioning the war on terrorism

MARIA ELENA DURAZO
the burden on working families

REV. GEORGE REGAS
convener of Interfaith Communities United
For Justice And Peace

MEDEA BENJAMIN
Afghan refugees
legacy of "victory"

RABBI ALLEN FREEHLING on threats to civil liberties

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH CHOIR

Religious communities must stop blessing war and violence...